

Harvard University Police Department

In order for the Harvard University Police Department to maintain a safe and secure campus it needs the help of the community. If you follow the advice below you will be doing your part to ensure your safety as well as the safety of the entire Harvard University community.

- Read "Playing it Safe."
- Know the HUPD urgent number (617-495-1212) and store it in your cell phone speed dial.
- Actively participate in maintaining a safe and secure campus by adopting the "If You See Something, Say Something" philosophy (see "Playing it Safe," page 7).
- Call the HUPD immediately if you observe suspicious activity or if you are victimized (see "Playing it Safe," page 12).
- Familiarize yourself with the "Designated Pathways" (www.hupd.harvard.edu/designated_safety_pathways.pdf) throughout campus and the location of blue light phones.
- Read and adhere to the crime prevention tips (see "Playing it Safe," page 9).
- Store your "In Case of Emergency" (ICE) contacts in your cell phone (see "Information and Services," page 28).
- Watch the "Partnership for a Safe Community" video (www.hupd.harvard.edu/safe_com_video.php).
- Attend or organize a safety talk with an HUPD officer (see "Playing it Safe," page 9).
- Register your laptop (see "Playing it Safe," page 15).
- Register your bicycle (see "Playing it Safe," page 14).
- Sign up for MessageMe (see "Playing it Safe," page 28).
